

Call for Papers: 23rd Annual Submarine Symposium Hamburg – GERMANY September 15 – 18, 2026

The World Submarine Organization (WSO) and Submersible Operators Group (SOG) in partnership with the MTS Submarine Committee and Det Norske Veritas (DNV), proudly present the 23rd Annual Submarine Symposium; Set to take place at the International Maritime Museum and DNV Headquarter in Hamburg, Germany.

This four-day event will bring together leading experts, industry stakeholders, regulators, and innovators to discuss advancements in submarine technology, safety regulations, and operational best practices. Attendees will gain valuable insights through technical presentations, collaborative discussions, and networking opportunities with professionals from across the globe.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

Submission Deadline: June 15, 2026

We are pleased to announce that the Symposium Technical Program schedule has room for 22 presentations slots, each including a 20-minute presentation and a 10-minute Q&A session. Please submit a short abstract with title and contact details through our online submission form.

Check Speaker Guidelines Here

 We encourage early submission as spaces are limited.

Abstract Submission Click Here

 Conference Dates: September 15-18, 2026

 Location: International Maritime Museum & DNV Headquarters – Hamburg, GERMANY

2026 Program Themes

- New Vehicles & Technologies
- Global Submersible Operations
- Research & Expeditions
- Submarine Rescue Systems
- Advanced Underwater Engineering & Materials
- Power, Propulsion & Navigation Systems
- Governmental Regulations
- Classification Societies Updates
- Historical Events & Stories

For any questions or to discuss ideas for a presentation, visit <https://worldsubmarines.org/> or contact:

Anaïs Hamel
m: 909-989-7773
e: ahamel@worldsubmarines.org

William Kohlen
m: 951-323-5377
e: wkohlen@hydrospacegroup.com